

THE DAILY SENTINEL is two cents a copy, ten cents a week, forty cents a month, $1.50 a year—either by carrier or mail.

THE WEEKLY SENTINEL is 5 cents a copy, fifty cents per six months, $1.00 a year, in clubs of ten or more, ninety cents a copy one year, and a free copy to the getter up of the club—cash in advance.

ADVERTISEMENTS: In the Daily or Weekly six cents a line (seven words) each insertion in local column. No charge less than twenty-five cents. "Amusements," "meetings," "lectures," and special notices on the first page in large type, ten cents a line. Nothing less than fifty cents. Announcements of "wanted," "lost," "found," marriages and deaths, twenty-five cents.

Checks and money orders to be made payable to E. A. K. HACKETT.

The average circulation of THE DAILY SENTINEL, exceeding that of any paper in the state, outside of Indianapolis, shows how completely it maintains its superiority as the most effective and economical advertising medium in the west. Not only in the number of papers sold, but in the character of its audience, it stands higher than any other journal in the state, published outside of Indianapolis. THE SENTINEL is read by the most intelligent and prosperous class of people in Northern Indiana.

The Daily Sentinel

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4.

BY E. A. K. HACKETT.

The country is saved, no matter who is elected.

The man who "told you so" has come to the surface.

The campaign lie has had its day and should now be shelved for four years.

REMARK dropped by Widow Beldott when she read the election news: "Great Guns."

The principal candidates were well fixed for sits. Garfield had his senatorial seat to fall into, and Hancock his major general's commission.

The farmers of thrifty New England are making large shipments of Newtown pippins to England, realizing therefrom about $9.00 a barrel.

NEAL DOWN and pray that the prohibition party is no more, and we'll Weaver crown of greenback laurels around the Chambers of politics.

The circulation of THE SENTINEL is much larger than any other paper printed here and this fact should be borne in mind by the advertising public.

WAIT until Garfield's inaugural comes out and then observe how "a man of letters" can put language in shape. Wonder if companies will be spelled "ys."

FARMERS need not fear for their crops now. General Garfield is elected. Prosperity will have a new lease of life. At least one would suppose so by reading the radical sheets.

THE Springfield (Mass.) Republican says Hayes is a good president and Evans a good lawyer. No doubt, but that does not give them any license to misstate their thanksgiving proclamation.

THE victory gained by the Heathen Chinese last Tuesday is peculiar and the same Garfield should be sure to explain. The average pig tail will do a big washee washee business since his recent advertising.

"THE World's To-morrow" is the title of Theodore Tilton's lecture for the coming season. Theodore probably knows all about it, having based his hopes on that, thoroughly disgusted with the world's yesterday.

THE Republicans wanted a campaign of decency, without personal detraction, and to wind up their fight the Cincinnati Commercial declared that Hancock is both stupid and brainless. But if we remember rightly these same republicans were mighty glad to trust Hancock's brain and courage at Gettysburg.

A PRESS dispatch says if it proves that California chooses democratic electors and two or three congressmen it may be fairly attributed to the influence of the Morey letter. If this is so then the people of the Golden State have shown a greater degree of common sense than their brethren in several eastern states.

THE people have had a good long siege of politics, much more than enough, indeed, to satisfy the most exacting searcher after sensation, and now it is time to buckle down to business again. There is every evidence that the winter will be unusually prosperous. In all branches of trade great activity prevails, and the preparations for the holiday season are marked by unusual energy and liberality. "A plague," then, "on both your houses," say the merchants, and after one of the houses will have had its affairs wound up, commerce will flow back into its old channel again and business will resume its sway.

THE republicans of Rochester, N. Y., attempted the bribe game, and six of them were arrested. The marshals were opposed to the arrests.

THE democratic party has suffered defeat, and from its own bungling manners. The republicans have never yet beaten the democracy, it beat itself.

THE laws of Tennessee do not allow a saloon near a school house, says an exchange. The question naturally comes to the literal definition of "near."

LAFAYETTE Courier: We will pay one dollar reward, cash in hand, for each and every good business democrat, who will say on honor that he is not glad of the result of Tuesday.

Send 2,500 of those dollars up into Allen county.

The Boston Post says that "going out between the acts" will be forbidden during the production of the Passion Play in New York. And yet the manager expects it to succeed in that city.

Now the fight for Garfield's senatorial seat will begin, and Charley Foster smiles as he thinks how happy he would be in there. But then Charley, remember there are other Ohio men, several, in fact.

THEY talk about the death of the democratic party. Why, a party that has held the opposition element so close to the scratch for years is not going to die on the eve of an administration that will make the American people so disgusted with themselves as to roll up the largest democratic majority in 1884 that was ever dreamed of.

THE governor of Texas is becoming converted into a reformer rapidly. He has just issued a proclamation offering fifty dollars for the apprehension of homicides and robbers, and it has the right ring. It begins to look as if the governor will not only be a friend to the public schools and of immigration, a promoter of the university, and a father to the people, but also an "upright justicer," who has bade farewell to the guile of communication.

THE Toledo Daily Sun is a new paper just started by the printers of that city, at least that portion of the fraternity formerly employed in the Telegram office, who are out on a strike caused by the importation of female labor into the Telegram news room. The subject of strikes has become threadbare, and the results attained some, what unsatisfactory, but, from a democratic standpoint, it would seem as if the Telegram folks have Chinese their office, and thus gone square back upon their supporting candidate. While there is doubt as to the life of the Sun, it will have some effect as a precedent in hiring female type setters on a morning paper.

THE Thanksgiving proclamation of the president does not appear to be a very studied effort. The New York Sun finds the following remarkable phrases:

"At no period in their history has this people" &c.

"So universal reasons!"

"Gratitude at the favor of Almighty God."

"Firm and faithful adherence by the great body of our population," &c.

"The principles of liberty and justice which have made our greatness as a nation, and the wise institutions and strong frame of government and society which perpetuate it."

"For all these let the thanks of a happy and united people, as with one voice, ascend," &c.

AN OLD HUNTER'S DEATH.

One of a Number of Pennsylvania's Nimrods who Have Come to a Violent End.

LACKAWANNA, Pa., Nov. 4.—Jonas Shaffer, aged 70 years, has just died. He was a famous hunter. He was the father of Jonas, Gil, and Brock Shaffer, all hunters and guides in the Pike woods. The old gentleman's death was the result of injuries received by the attack of a vicious bull two weeks ago. Mr. Shaffer was walking through a lot where the bulls were kept. The animal rushed upon him before he could get beyond its reach. The bull caught the hunter in its horns and tossed him over a stone wall. The animal jumped over the wall and tossed the old gentleman back again into the lot. He was found by one of his sons. Several ribs were broken and his body was terribly torn by the bull's horns. Mr. Shaffer is the fourth one of the old time hunters of northern Pennsylvania who have met tragic deaths after years spent among the dangers of hunting and trapping bears and other wild animals. Six Reeves was killed by a falling tree in Potter county last winter. A short time before that Sid. Ooley was caught in one of his bear traps in the Forest county woods, and held there until he died and was eaten by wild beasts. An old hunter named Pestlingill was killed by a runaway horse in Monroe county a year or so since. All of these men had narrowly escaped death scores of times in hand-to-hand fights with wounded animals. There are only a few old time hunters left in this region. Jacob Benson, Marcus Killam, one or two of the Kimbles, Pin Treble and Ed Quick are among them.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Carlyle has been forced to cease work on his autobiography.

The prince of Wales pocketed £18,000 on the Cambridge race.

Earl Malmesbury, 74 years of age, has married Miss Hamilton, a lady of 24.

Long Island farmers are making large shipments of Newton pippins to England, where they realize $9 per barrel.

Both the harvest and the fishery have failed in the lower portion of Quebec, and the sufferers have appealed to the government for aid.

Eight tramps attacked J. P. Brown and a friend in a tunnel, near Gallatin, Tenn. Brown killed two of his assailants, when the others rallied and beat him nearly to death, robbing him of $1,200.

Miss Potter's Mimicry.

The following item, from the New York Sun, with respect to a lady who has many friends and admirers in Fort Wayne, will be read with interest here: "Genuine talent for mimicry is so rare that most acting on the stage is hardly any different from the natural manner of the actors themselves. Miss Helen Potter is remarkably clever in this uncommon direction. She appeared at Masonic Hall last evening in an entertainment largely made up of her curious impersonations of public characters, grave and comic. She also used her elocutionary ability in readings, and altogether gave proof of a versatile power to please an audience unused to anything more largely dramatic. She ought to be a strong lyceum attraction. Besides the various things Miss Potter did, the rest of her company—her 'Pleiades,' she calls them—filled out a long programme of vocal and instrumental music."

their proper share of the golden shekels Europe is pouring in upon us.

One way to get rich is to let us sell you everything you want that we have, and we have almost everything you want.

First: We have the nicest line of Dress Goods, Cloaks, Shawls, Blankets, Flannels, Cloths, Muslins, Prints, Fancy Goods, &c., that we have ever shown you during the twelve years we have done business in Fort Wayne, and our profits are now smaller and our prices lower than ever before.

Second: Our immense carpet stock, containing the handsomest patterns of five of the best manufacturers in the country, demands the undivided attention of every person having goods in that line to buy. Our patterns are prettiest and are prices lower than the largest houses in the larg-

Third: We are now displaying heavy purchases, recently made, of low priced, medium, and fine Furniture for Kitchen, Dining Room, Bedroom, or Parlor, at prices so low as to make it profitable to come five hundred miles in order to buy these goods of us. We are repeatedly shipping furniture into Chicago. Especially on fine Parlor and Bedroom suits we are eclipsing all competitors.

Fourth: We are also heavy dealers in crockery, Tinware, Sewing Machines and hundreds of other housekeeping articles; and our department system of crowding a dozen kinds of business under one roof and one set of expenses, enables us to retail everything at wholesale prices.

Finally: We have but one price and guarantee every article to be as represented, so that our establishment offers you an eminently trustworthy store at which to make all your purchases.

THE DAILY EVENING SENTINEL has the largest circulation of any paper in the state outside of Indianapolis, and a larger circulation than all the other Fort Wayne papers combined.

The Daily Sentinel

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4.

FORT WAYNE.

Very slim market to-day.

Business in the Justice offices is dull at present.

The politicians from the rural districts are homeward bound.

The circuit court will adjourn for the regular term. The session will commence Monday, November 15.

Sheriff Munson went to Michigan City to-day with two criminals in charge for the state prison—Richard Rockerty and John Friel.

Mr. P. N. Lynn, of Indianapolis, is now in Fort Wayne, for the purpose of making arrangements for the establishment of an office of the Fast Freight line in this city. Mr. Lynn is stopping at the Mayer house.

The following gentlemen have been chosen to act as floor managers, on the occasion of the ball of the Butchers' union, which takes place at Arion Hall, on the 18th, inst. Charles Weller, Leopold Wolf and Frank Gruber.

Carpenters and builders are quite satisfied with the amount of business they are doing. The number of buildings now in the course of erection, and undergoing improvements and repairs, is unusually large for this season in the year.

The latest cases recorded on the circuit court docket are: Celestine Biewene vs. Edward F. Biewene, divorce, set for Nov. 15; and, William Beasley vs. Franklin Cruthers, suit for the recovery of $400, alleged to be due the plaintiff, set for the 16th.

Since THE SENTINEL's last report, marriage licenses have been applied for and issued to the following happy couples: J. F. Shamfberger and Mary Patterson, Jacob Kassens and Helena Brake, George Harris and Lizzie Adam, A. H. Wickersham and Jessie W. Howe.

Mace Long's new book, "Fallen Women," will be delivered to subscribers on Saturday. Those who have not yet ordered the book should do so at once, as the first addition will be exhausted in a very short time. The work is one of unusual excellence and will be productive of much good.

George Morgan, the man who about a year ago was sentenced to five years' imprisonment upon the strength of his confession of complicity in the Burlager robbery, is temporarily breathing the air of freedom again.
He is in the criminal court to-day, giving evidence against his alleged accomplice in the robbery, Lee Burt, who is now on trial.

Considerable amusement was occasioned on an in-coming train this morning by a little incident that occurred. A vendor of vegetable ivory goods tackled a green-looking bridegroom, whose fair and blushing bride sat beside him. The greeny looked over all the fancy articles, and finally decided upon a rattle-box. The occupants of the car, who had been intently watching the couple, burst out into a simultaneous roar of laughter, and the rustic bridegroom could not imagine the cause of the merriment.

An alarm of fire was sounded last evening between 7 and 8 o'clock, and another at about 6 o'clock this morning. The fire brigade and engines turned out on both occasions and rendered the services required. The cause of each alarm was the rekindling of the fire which, on Monday night, consumed the Bloomingdale brewery. This morning the firemen had a hard time of it, being kept at work from about 6 till 10 o'clock, playing upon a pile of burning sawdust. This is getting rather monotonous.

The local correspondent of the Indianapolis Sentinel is a remarkably enterprising individual. He is bound to keep abreast with the times in the matter of news, if not a little ahead of it. Truth, with him, is stranger than fiction. Being determined to get away with the Fort Wayne papers, he informed our Indianapolis namesake that Mr. Englet, the young man who was accidentally shot in the arm on Tuesday evening, had died from his injuries. Mr. Englet on the contrary, is progressing very favorably toward recovery.

AMUSEMENTS.

HI. HENRY'S MINSTRELS.

These artists, of the burnt cork persuasion, will appear at the Grand Opera house in this city on Wednesday evening next, the 10th inst. Hi.
Henry's fame is so well known that comment is unnecessary. His company this year is stronger than ever.
Bear the date in mind.

ELECTION NOTES.

Please let up on politics.
Alabama is safe, anyhow.
It was a glorious victory—for John Chinaman.

Garfield couldn't carry Allen county all-a-samee.

The ladies of Fort Wayne are glad that it is over.

The excitement is still several degrees above blood heat.

Garfield to Hayes: "I won't have to steal the seat, anyhow."

The republican gamesters have lost heaps of money in New Jersey.

The chances are that no eight to seven commissions will be required.

Oh, if we had only been blessed with this kind of weather on Tuesday!

The trip up Salt River is a very pleasant one this time of the year—if it doesn't rain.

Young man—you who voted the republican ticket, have you had your wages raised yet?

Business men will now renew some of the acquaintances which were broken off by partisan hate.

It is now said that the civil service employees will return to the work for which they receive their salaries.

The dampness of the weather is such as to cool the ardor of the loudest-mouthed and most enthusiastic republican.

The American people are evidently in favor of Chinese cheap labor. I'll give them all they want of it.—James A. Garfield.

It is now said that some of the wind used in propelling campaign orators will be turned to the interesting and beautiful work of telling how it happened.

The fathers of interesting girls will now have time to investigate the coal supply and estimate the winter cost of courting as compared with the fall cost of weddings.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. John W. Abbott, agent for Hi Henry's minstrels, is in the city.

—Mr. Charles Travers, Chicago, is among the guests at the Mayer house.

—Mr. E. V. Robinson, representing the firm of S. L. Fraser, Toledo, is at the Mayer house.

—A. L. Morris, representing a large Boston dry goods house, is stopping at the Mayer house.

—Mr. J. H. Wickersham, of Lancaster, Pa., who is to take unto himself a wife this evening in the person Miss Hough, is stopping at the Ave-line.

—Three medical gentlemen are at the Mayer house—Dr. C. H. White, of Reed city, Mich.; Dr. H. D. Wood, of Angola, and Dr. Thomas Sargent, of Big Rapids, Mich.

—M. F. Collier and R. H. Gerrigie, Kendallville; Jacob Fox, Indianapolis; E. D. Wilson and A. E. Yale, New York, and O. Nunocks, Angola, are among the latest arrivals at the Aveline.

—Toledo Blade: Mr. W. E. Westlake, for some time past city editor of the Blade, left this morning for Fort Wayne to accept a similar position on THE SENTINEL of that city. The many friends of Mr. Westlake in the Blade office unite in wishing him every success possible.

—Fort Wayne was enlivened last night by the presence of Mr. A. J.
Bebout, editor of the Toledo Democrat. Mr. Bebout was on the way from his own village to Chicago, and stopped over in this city three or four hours, which he spent in socializing with his many friends here. Mr. Be-bout says the democrats of Toledo gave up the fight early in the morning. He experienced a relief in finding the Fort Wayne democrats so cheerful.

Toledo Bee: Mr. W. E. Westlake, who has been connected with the editorial staff of the Blade for over a year, has accepted the position of city editor of the Fort Wayne SENTINEL, and expects to leave for his new post of duty to-morrow evening. Mr.
Westlake's departure will be a great loss to Toledo journalism, but a decided gain to that of his newly chosen city. His many friends here will join in wishing him much success.

Toledo Times: Mr. W. E. Westlake, who has been for some time city editor of the Blade, has resigned his position on that paper to take a like position on the Fort Wayne SENTI-NEL. Mr. Westlake is one of the most talented and promising of our young journalists, a courteous and cultured gentleman, and will carry with him to his new field of labor the very best wishes of his hosts of friends, who will always be pleased to hear of his prosperity and the success he is competent to win.

Lost and Found.

Yesterday morning, at about 10 o'clock, a little boy named Harry Kensil, son of Mr. John C. Kensil, 173 Holman street, wandered away from home and was not seen till 5 o'clock in the evening. It was some time before he was missed, and when his absence from the house and vicinity was discovered, Mrs. Kensil became alarmed and, with others, started out on a hunting expedition. It was afterwards found that the little fellow had gone out Lafayette street, and, as is usually the case, the searchers tried almost every other street first. At about 5 o'clock, Mr. Kensil found the lost boy near the Bloomingdale bridge. He had been found by Mrs. Myers, a lady living in that vicinity, who had taken care of him for a short time. He seemed quite unconcerned when his father found him, and appeared to have enjoyed his tramp.

THE RAILROADS.

Passenger traffic was lively yesterday.

The Baltimore & Ohio company now run their own sleepers.

Mr. J. E. Clark, of Mt. Vernon, Ind., has accepted a position as agent under General Manager R. G. Butler, of the Toledo & Burlington railroad.

Three elegant new passenger cars went west to-day on the Lake Shore road, designed for the Wisconsin and Minnesota road. They were rich in design, and were built at Springfield, Mass., by the Wason car company.

The first of a lot of ten drawing-room sleepers, building at the Pullman car works in Detroit, for the Pennsylvania company, was taken to Chicago the other night, via the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railway.
It is named the "Standard," and in elegance and finish is perhaps ahead of any other coach of its kind ever built.

Yesterday an express train on the Wabash, westward bound, was flagged when about four or five miles out from Toledo. The train stopped, and a little boy not much bigger than a hitchhiker got on, stepping up to the conductor, he said, in a loud shrill voice: "You may make up your mind to stop here every day, mister, for I'm a going to git on here reglar, after this."

STAGE WHISPERS.

Miss Dickie Lingard is burlesque-ing in Philadelphia.

Mary Anderson played at Grand Rapids, Mich., last night.

Emma Abbott is in New Orleans.
Gus Williams is there also.

Haverly's Mastodon's played to $9,000 in Manchester, Eng., last week.

Frank Mayo has made a hit at Louisville, Ky., in "Van, the Virginian."

The Passion Play is to be presented in New York under management of Mr. Abbey.

The "Banker's Son" combination will commence their travels of the west the present week.

"The Queen's Handkerchief," a new comic opera has been purchased by Augustin Daly, from Leo Gold-mark.

Rose Eytinge begins a starring tour next Monday evening, opening her season at the Grand Opera House, New Orleans.

A PLACE OF BEAUTY.

Is Shoaff's Art Gallery—What Taste
Can Do.

Having heard so much about Shoaff's recently fitted up art gallery, on West Berry street, a SENTINEL representative this morning determind to visit the place and see whether the reports regarding its beauty were really authentic. To say that we were surprised when we entered the magnificently furnished reception room would but faintly convey our feelings.
Placing some confidence in the report we heard we of course expected to see something grand, but we did not really expect to find everything planned on such an elaborate scale as we found it. It far more than met our expectations, and is certainly one of the finest galleries in the state. No place in the city can compare with it in point of elegance, appointments and general perfection, and Mr. Shoaff certainly deserves great credit for the admirable taste he has displayed. It would be folly for us to attempt examination of all the improvements and devices that have been studied by the artists to enhance the beauty of the place, for nothing short of a personal inspection can convey any definite idea of it.
The one point which Mr. Shoaff has succeeded in making and which there is not one photographer in the city can claim, is that photographs can be taken as well on cloudy days as when clear sunshine is prevailing. This every one should bear in mind as the impression is abroad that a photograph cannot be well taken on any except a clear day. With Mr. Shoaff this is not the case, as his facilities are far superior to those of other photographers. Since he opened his gallery the public appreciating his enterprise have patronized him liberally and for this he desires to return his sincere thanks and respectfully invites a continuance of the same. Did space permit we would gladly give a more elaborate description of this ideal gallery but in conclusion we would add that any one desiring photographs the finest that can possibly be procured, should take advantage of the inducements offered by Mr. Shoaff and call at once. It.

POLICE COURT.

Mayor Zollinger Presiding.

THURSDAY, NOV. 4.

The business before the city tribunal was rather light to-day. Only five names appeared on the docket, and the charge against each offender was drunkenness.

Charles O'Neil, arrested by Officer Frankie, went to the city prison for ten days in default of paying a fine of three dollars and costs.

Fred Schaff, arrested by Officer Quillinan, was fined five dollars and costs, which he paid.

Patrick Dolan had been taken in by Marshal Deihl. One dollar and costs, or eight days. Committed.

John Clanelly was found in an intoxicated condition by Officer Quillinan. Committed for eight days.

Charles Smith, gathered in by Officer Wilkinson, was sent down for ten days.

CRIMINAL COURT.

This court is in session to-day, and some important business has already been transacted.

Frank Pickler, charged with burglary and receiving stolen property, was tried and convicted of the crime.
He will spend one year in the State prison.

Richard Rockerty was convicted of burglary, and trespass, and sentenced to six months at Michigan City.

The trial of Lee Burt, charged with the famous Burlager robbery, is on trial at the hour of going to press.

Card of Thanks.

We hereby return our sincere thanks to all who in any way assisted in the obsequies of our relative, Herman Rehnman. They are due in an special manner to the St. Cecilia cornet band, the Hancock and English and Garfield and Arthur first voters, who so kindly evinced their esteem for their late companion. It will be ever gratefully remembered by THE FAMILY.
